

Do you think you deserve a good life?
We do too.

If you want to be more independent, ACSYL is here for you.

We are all brilliant at something. ACSYL can help you to shine. It can build a circle of friends around you who will celebrate the wonderful person that you are. They will stand up for you, support you and champion your cause.

These friends will encourage you to be as independent as possible, and to have the life you really want.

You can count on ACSYL to:

- listen to you
- celebrate your talents
- understand what you want and need
- plan with you for a good life
- find new friends for you
- work with you to reach your goals
- be there for you in the long term

Your circle of support will adapt to keep in step with you as you get older. As your wishes and needs change over time, the circle will keep listening to you, building your independence and helping you find ways to share your talents with your community.
